

sections, specialty and minority bar associations, courts of specific jurisdiction, and political entities. A list of this year's Board of Governors members follows this article. If you peruse it, you'll know at least one person on the Board, and more than likely a dozen or two.

The first Board meeting of the fiscal year 2003–04 will be held November 8, 2003, in Colorado Springs at the Broadmoor Hotel. Important issues that will be addressed and debated include a report of amicus brief activity, the status of proposed amendments to C.R.C.P. 16, a pro bono report, the updated strategic plan of the CBA to benefit its members, recommendations of the Legislative Policy Committee about legislation for next year's session of the General Assembly, and the bar association's preliminary formulation of its response to the state judicial budget crisis.

Board of Governors members are at their best at these meetings. They adeptly analyze and make counterpoint presentations. It is refreshing and stimulating to come together with well informed, committed people who are focused on improving the justice system. In anticipation of the November 8 Board meeting, please contact one or more of the appropriate representatives and share your interests with them. Then the Board's discussion will be even more reflective of all of our members across the state, as we work together as a community of lawyers to better our profession and our state.
